ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 1

FORM OF THE COMPANY

This company, which was incorporated on June 24, 1881 in the form of a French société en commandite par actions (limited partnership with shares), was converted into a French société anonyme (corporation) pursuant to a decision of the extraordinary meeting of shareholders of March 24, 1972.

This company is governed by the provisions of the French Commercial Code, as well as by the specific provisions of these bylaws. In particular, this company is governed by Articles L.225-17 to L.225-56 of said Code, pursuant to a decision of the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of May 19, 2005.

ARTICLE 2

CORPORATE NAME

The company's name is: Kering.

In all instruments and documents issued by the company, the corporate name must be immediately preceded or followed by the words: "société anonyme" or the initials "SA" and the amount of the share capital.

ARTICLE 3

REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office is in the seventh arrondissement (district) of Paris, France, at 40, rue de Sèvres.

ARTICLE 4

TERM OF THE COMPANY'S EXISTENCE

The company's term of existence, which was originally set at ninety-nine years as from the date of its definitive incorporation, was extended by ninety-nine years by the extraordinary general meeting of May 26, 1967 as from such date. It will therefore expire on May 26, 2066, unless the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders decides to wind the company up early or extend its term of existence.

ARTICLE 5

CORPORATE PURPOSE

The purpose of the company is:

- the purchase, retail sale or wholesale, either directly or indirectly, by all means and using all existing or future techniques, of all goods, products, commodities or services;
- the creation, acquisition, leasing, operating or sale, either directly or indirectly, of all retail or wholesale establishments, stores or warehouses, by all means and using all existing or future techniques, of all goods, products, commodities or services;
- the direct or indirect manufacture of all goods, products or commodities that are useful for corporate operations;
- the direct or indirect supply of all services;
- the purchase, operation and sale of all buildings that are useful for corporate operations;
- the creation of all commercial, non-trading, industrial and financial concerns, whether in moveable or real property, service businesses or otherwise, the acquisition of participating interests by all means, the subscription, acquisition, contribution, merger or otherwise of such concerns and the management of its participating interests;
- and, in general, all commercial, non-trading, industrial and financial operations, whether in moveable or real property, service businesses or otherwise that can be directly or indirectly connected to the purposes specified above or to all similar, complementary or related purposes or purposes that are liable to favor the creation or development thereof.

ARTICLE 6

SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital social is set at EUR 493,683,112. It is divided into 123,420,778 shares with a par value of four euros each, which are paid up in full.

The capital transactions record for the company is attached as a schedule to these bylaws.

ARTICLE 7

FORM OF THE SHARES - IDENTIFICATION OF THE SHARE OWNERS

The shares shall be in registered or bearer form at the shareholder's discretion. The shares shall be entered into an account under the conditions and in accordance with the terms provided for by the regulations in force.

The company is authorized to use the provisions of the law and regulations that are stipulated regarding the identification of the holders of securities that grant immediate or deferred access to voting rights in its own shareholders' meetings.

In addition to the legal obligations to notify the company and the French financial markets authority (Autorité des marchés financiers – AMF) when shareholdings reach or fall below a given threshold, any individual or legal entity directly or indirectly holding shares in the company, whether acting alone or in concert, shall notify the company of the total number of shares and voting rights held if said number reaches or exceeds 2% or any multiple thereof, including multiples exceeding the legal threshold of 5%. Notifications shall be made by registered letter with return receipt sent to the registered office no later than 15 days after the date on which the threshold was crossed or reached, or by any other equivalent means for shareholders not residing in France, it being specified that the contents of the notification must comply with the legal and regulatory provisions applicable to shareholder notifications concerning legal thresholds, and must include the information to be provided in such circumstances to the AMF, as stated in its General Regulations. The same notification obligation shall apply under the same conditions when a shareholder's total shares and/or voting rights reach or fall below any of the aforementioned thresholds.

If the notification is not submitted, the shares exceeding the threshold for which the notification should have been made may be deprived of voting rights at the request of one or more shareholders holding a combined or individual total of at least 5% of the company's share capital and/or voting rights, under the conditions set forth in the sixth paragraph of Article L. 233- 7 of the French Commercial Code. If the notification is subsequently made, the corresponding voting rights may not be exercised until the period of time defined by law or the prevailing regulations has expired.

ARTICLE 8

RIGHTS ATTACHED TO EACH SHARE

In addition to the voting right that is granted to each share by the law and by the specific provisions of Article 20 below, each share grants the right to a percentage, which is proportional to the number and par value of the existing shares, of the corporate assets, the profit after deduction of the deductions provided for by law and the bylaws, or of the liquidating dividend.

Each time it is necessary to possess more than one share in order to exercise a right, it is the responsibility of the owners who do not possess such number to make arrangements to regroup the required number of shares.

ARTICLE 9

PAYING IN SHARES

One-quarter of the par value of shares that are subscribed for in cash at the time of a capital increase must obligatorily be paid in at the time of subscription and, where applicable, the full amount of any issue premium must be paid in. The remainder must be paid in, in one or more installments, following a call for funds issued by the Board of Directors under the statutory and regulatory conditions.

Calls for funds shall be brought to the attention of subscribers and shareholders under the statutory and regulatory conditions.

Any delay in the payment of the monies owed on the share amounts that have not been paid in shall, without the need for any formality whatsoever, automatically give rise to the payment of interest at the bank base rate, increased by two points, on a day-for-day basis as from the due date, without prejudice to the personal action that the company may take against the defaulting shareholder and the measures of compulsory execution provided for by law.

ARTICLE 10

COMPANY MANAGEMENT – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The company shall be managed by a Board of Directors made up of at least three members and eighteen members at the most, subject to the derogations provided for by law, in particular in the event of a merger.

2. Persons are ineligible for appointment as director if, having passed the age of 70, their appointment would result in more than one-third of the number of the members of the Board of Directors being over said age. If, as a result of a director passing the age of 70, the one-third proportion referred to above is exceeded, the oldest director shall be deemed to have resigned automatically at the first subsequent ordinary general meeting.

3. Directors shall be appointed under the statutory conditions by the ordinary general meeting of shareholders, for a term of four years. Directors may be re-elected.

The Board of Directors is renewed by rotation over a period of time, so that a proportion of its members are elected on each occasion.

Exceptionally, and only for the sole purpose of the progressive implementation of this renewal mechanism, the Ordinary General Shareholders’ Meeting may reduce the term of office of one or more Directors, so that the members of the Board of Directors are elected more periodically.

4. If one or more director’s seats on the Board become vacant, the Board of Directors may, under the statutory conditions, provisionally appoint directors. Said appointments shall be submitted to the first subsequent ordinary general meeting for ratification. Directors who are appointed under these conditions to replace another director shall remain in office for the remaining term of their predecessor’s office.

5. Each director must own at least 50 company shares.

6. Pursuant to the provisions laid down by law, when the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Annual General Meeting is less than or equal to eight, a Director representing employees is appointed for a term of four years by the company’s Social and Economic Committee. When the Board of Directors is composed of a number greater than eight members, a second Director representing employees is appointed for a term of four years by the European Works Council. If the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the General Meeting becomes less than or equal to eight, the mandate of the second Director representing employees continues to completion.

ARTICLE 11

TASKS AND POWERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall perform the tasks and exercise the powers that are conferred on it by the law and these bylaws.

The Board shall determine and assess the company’s policies, targets and performances and ensure the implementation thereof, in accordance with the Company’s interest, taking into account the social and environmental issues associated with its business. Subject to the powers that are expressly conferred on shareholders’ meetings and within the limit of the corporate purpose, the Board shall take it upon itself to handle all issues related to the smooth running of the company and, through its decisions, shall settle the matters that concern it.

The Board shall perform the reviews and checks it deems appropriate.

The Board may grant, with or without the option of substitution, all powers of attorney to its Chairman or to any other officers it may appoint, subject to the limits provided for by law.

ARTICLE 12

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS – HONORARY CHAIRMAN – VICE CHAIRMAN - SECRETARY

1. The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman from among its members, who must be an individual, who is appointed for his/her entire term of office as director. The Chairman may be re-elected.

Persons aged over sixty-five are ineligible for appointment as Chairman of the Board of Directors. Once the Chairman has passed the age of sixty-five, s/he shall be deemed to have resigned automatically.

2. The Chairman shall perform the tasks and exercise the powers that are conferred on him/her by the law and the bylaws. The Chairman shall chair Board meetings and organize Board work and meetings on which the Chairman shall report at the general meeting. The Chairman shall ensure that the corporate structures operate properly and, in particular, that the directors are in a position to perform their task.

The Chairman shall chair the general meetings of shareholders and draw up the reports provided for by law. The Chairman may also assume the general management of the company in the capacity of Managing Director, if the Board of Directors has chosen to combine said two positions when the Chairman is appointed or at any other time. In this case, the provisions that are applicable to the Managing Director shall apply to the Chairman.

- 3. The Board of Directors may appoint an Honorary Chairman who may attend Board meetings with an advisory vote.
- 4. The Board of Directors may appoint a Vice Chairman from among its members, who may chair meetings in the absence of the Chairman.
- 5. The Board of Directors may appoint a secretary, who need not be a Board member.

ARTICLE 13

DELIBERATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS – MINUTES

- 1. The Board of Directors shall meet as often as the interest of the company requires, pursuant to a convening notice issued by its Chairman or at the request of at least one-third of the directors. Board meetings shall be held at the registered office, or in any other place stated in the convening notice. The convening notice may be issued by all means, including orally, by the Chairman, the Board secretary at the request of the Chairman or, if the Chairman is not available, by the Vice Chairman or, by default, by the oldest director in office.
- 2. The Board of Directors can only validly deliberate if at least one-half of its members are present. The Board may stipulate that directors are deemed to be present, for the calculation of the quorum and the majority, who attend the Board meeting by videoconference or other appropriate means under the conditions provided for by the law and regulations. All directors may give a proxy in writing to another director to represent him/her at a meeting of the Board of Directors; each director may only hold one proxy per meeting.
- 3. Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, by default, by the Vice Chairman or, by default, by the oldest director in office or by any other director appointed by the Board of Directors. Decisions shall be taken on the majority of the members who are present, deemed present or represented. In the event of a tie, the meeting chairman shall have the casting vote.
- 4. The Board of Directors may decide to set up committees that are responsible for studying the issues that the Board itself or its Chairman may submit to them for analysis. As required, the Board shall determine through internal regulations the membership and duties of each said committees, which shall work under the responsibility of the Board.
- 5. All persons who attend Board meetings are required to maintain the privileged nature of information that is confidential and presented as such by the Chairman, as well as to comply with a general obligation of discretion.
- 6. The Board of Directors shall determine how it operates in internal regulations, in accordance with the law and the bylaws.
- 7. Decisions of the Board of Directors may be made by means of a written consultation, including by electronic means. A draft decision, accompanied by the necessary contextual elements to ensure a proper understanding of the matter, shall be sent in writing, including by electronic means, by the Chair to all directors. This draft decision shall enable each director to respond “for” or “against”, to abstain or to submit any observations. The response period granted to directors shall not exceed three (3) business days unless a shorter period is determined by the Chair due to the context or the nature of the decision. Failure to respond within the prescribed timeframe shall be deemed non-participation.

Any director may object to the use of this decision-making procedure within the timeframe specified in the communication of the above-mentioned proposal.

The internal rules of the Board of Directors shall set out the procedures applicable to written consultations insofar as they are not governed by the applicable legal and regulatory provisions or by these articles of association.

ARTICLE 14

GENERAL MANAGEMENT

In accordance with the provisions of the law, the general management shall be performed, under the Chairman’s responsibility, by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by any other individual appointed by the Board, who shall have the title of Managing Director.

The Board of Directors shall choose between the two methods of performing the general management, on the majority of the directors who are present, deemed to be present or represented; this choice shall be valid until a decision to the contrary is made by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 15

MANAGING DIRECTOR – APPOINTMENT – POWERS

1. When the Board of Directors chooses to dissociate the duties of Chairman and Managing Director, pursuant to Article 14, the Board shall appoint the Managing Director from among or outside the directors, set the Managing Director’s term of office, determine his/her compensation and, where applicable, the limits on his/her powers.

Persons who have passed the age of 65 are ineligible for appointment as Managing Director. Once the Managing Director has passed the age of 65, s/he shall be deemed to have resigned automatically.

The powers of the Managing Director are those conferred by the law. The Managing Director shall be vested with the broadest powers to act on behalf of the company under all circumstances. The Managing Director shall exercise these powers within the limit of the corporate purpose and subject to the powers that the law expressly confers on shareholders’ meetings and the Board of Directors. The Managing Director shall represent the company in his/her dealings with third parties.

2. The following are subject to the prior authorization of the Board of Directors:
- decisions by the Managing Director and any decisions by the Assistant Managing Directors concerning:
 - matters and transactions that have a substantive effect on the strategy of the Group, its financial structure or its scope of business activity,
 - except in the event of a decision by the general meeting of shareholders, issues of securities, regardless of the nature thereof, which are liable to cause a change in the share capital,
 - the following operations by the Company or any entity controlled by the Group, insofar as they each exceed an amount set annually by the Board of Directors:
 - all investments or divestments, including the acquisition or sale or exchange of shareholdings in all existing or future businesses;
 - all purchases or sales of Company buildings.

3. Under the conditions specified by law, the Board of Directors shall set either a total amount, within which the Managing Director may, with or without the option of delegating, make commitments in the name of the company in the form of guarantees, sureties or endorsements, or an amount above which each of said commitments cannot be made. If the total limit or the maximum amount set for each commitment is exceeded, the Board of Directors must provide authorization.

4. The Managing Director may grant all powers of attorney to all officers s/he appoints, with or without the option of substitution, subject to the limits provided for by law.

ARTICLE 16

ASSISTANT MANAGING DIRECTORS – APPOINTMENT – POWERS

1. Pursuant to a proposal by the Managing Director, regardless of whether this position is held by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by another person, the Board may appoint one or more individuals who are responsible for assisting the Managing Director and who shall have the title of Assistant Managing Director. The maximum number of Managing Directors is set at five.

Persons who have passed the age of 65 are ineligible for appointment as Assistant Managing Director. Once the Assistant Managing Director has passed the age of 65, s/he shall be deemed to have resigned automatically.

If the Managing Director no longer performs or is prevented from performing his/her duties, the Assistant Managing Director(s) shall retain their positions and their duties until a new Managing Director is appointed, unless the Board of Directors makes a decision to the contrary.

2. In agreement with the Managing Director, the Board of Directors shall determine the scope and duration of the powers granted to the Assistant Managing Directors.

With regard to third parties, the Assistant Managing Director(s) shall have the same powers as the Managing Director.

ARTICLE 17

COMPENSATION OF THE DIRECTORS, THE CHAIRMAN, THE MANAGING DIRECTOR, THE ASSISTANT MANAGING DIRECTORS

1. The general meeting of shareholders may award the directors a fixed annual amount as remuneration for their duties, which shall be allocated among the Directors as determined by the Board of Directors.

2. The Board of Directors may award exceptional compensation for tasks or duties entrusted to the Directors. The Board may authorize the reimbursement of the fees and expenses incurred by the Directors in the interest of the Company.

3. The Board of Directors shall determine the compensation of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Managing Director and the Assistant Managing Directors under the conditions provided for by the law and the regulations.

ARTICLE 18

AUDITORS

The general meeting, pursuant to a proposal by the Board of Directors, shall appoint at least two auditors and two deputy auditors, which shall perform their engagement in accordance with the law and the regulations.

The auditors’ fees shall be set in accordance with the law and the regulations.

ARTICLE 19

SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Shareholders' meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors and shall deliberate on their agenda under the conditions provided for by the law and the regulations.

Meetings shall be held at the registered office or in any other place specified in the convening notice.

All shareholders may attend meetings, either in person or via a proxy, under the conditions laid down by law, subject to providing proof of their identity and of the title to their securities, by the recognition of said securities in the accounts in their name within the regulatory timeframes, either in the accounts of registered securities held by the company, or in the accounts of bearer securities held by the accredited intermediary. Proof of the capacity of a shareholder can be provided electronically, under the conditions set by the regulations in force. Pursuant to a decision of the Board of Directors, shareholders may participate in meetings via videoconference or via telecommunications means that make it possible to identify them under the conditions laid down by the regulations in force. All shareholders may vote by correspondence using a form filled out and sent to the company under the conditions laid down by the regulations in force, including electronically, pursuant to a decision by the Board of Directors. This form must reach the company under the regulatory conditions in order to be taken into account. The Board of Directors may reduce said timeframe for the benefit of all shareholders. The owners of securities who are not resident on French territory may be represented by an intermediary who is registered under the conditions laid down by the regulations in force.

Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or in his/her absence, by the member of the Board who is specifically appointed for this purpose by the Board. By default, the meeting shall elect its own chair.

Meeting minutes shall be prepared and copies thereof shall be certified and issued in accordance with the law.

In all general shareholders' meetings, a voting right that is double that conferred on the other shares shall be granted to all shares that are paid up in full and for which proof is provided of being registered for at least two years in the name of the same shareholder.

This double voting right may be withdrawn outright at any time pursuant to a decision of the extraordinary general meeting and after ratification by a special meeting of the beneficiary shareholders.

ARTICLE 20

POWERS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

The powers that are specific to general, ordinary, extraordinary or special meetings of shareholders are those conferred on them by the law.

ARTICLE 21

COMPANY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Each corporate fiscal year shall start on January 1 and on December 31.

From the profit for the fiscal year, less deferred losses where applicable, a minimum withdrawal of one-twentieth shall be made and paid into a reserve fund known as the "legal reserve." Said withdrawal shall no longer be mandatory once said reserve reaches one-tenth of the share capital.

From the distributable profit, which is made up of the profit for the fiscal year less the deferred losses and the withdrawal referred to above, as well as the amounts to be paid into the reserves in accordance with the law, plus deferred profits, the general meeting, pursuant to a proposal by the Board of Directors, may withdraw all amounts it deems appropriate to determine, either to be deferred to the subsequent fiscal year, or to be entered into one or more extraordinary, general or special reserve funds, the allocation and use of which shall be governed by the Board.

The balance, if any, shall be allocated among the shareholders.

The general meeting of the shareholders that votes on the financial statements for the fiscal year has the option of granting each shareholder, for all or part of the dividend or interim dividends distributed, an option between the payment of the dividend or the interim dividend in cash or in shares. The general meeting may also decide, for all or part of the dividend, interim dividends, reserves, or premiums distributed, or for any capital reduction, that the distribution of dividends, reserves or premiums or the capital reduction will be made in kind in the form of corporate assets, including securities.

ARTICLE 22

BONDS

Bonds shall be subject to the same conditions as shares, as provided for in Article 7.

Bonds shall be entered into an account under the conditions and in accordance with the terms provided for by the law and regulations.

ARTICLE 23

WINDING UP AND LIQUIDATION

When the company is wound up, one or more liquidators shall be appointed by the general meeting of shareholders, under the quorum and majority conditions provided for ordinary general meetings.

The liquidator shall represent the company and be vested with the broadest powers to realize the assets, even amicably. The liquidator shall be empowered to pay the creditors and allocate the available balance.

The general meeting of shareholders may authorize the liquidator to continue current business or create new business for the purposes of the liquidation.

The shareholders' equity that remains after the par value of the shares has been reimbursed shall be allocated among the shareholders in the same proportions as their stake in the capital.
